ASTHMA, THREE YEARS' STANDING.—Mr. Rebert Monres, Schuylkill, af. facted with the above distressing malaly. Symptoms: Great languor, flatulency, disturbed rest, nervous headsche, difficulty of broathing, tightness and stricture a gross the breast, dizzineas, nervous irritability and restlessness, could not lie in a horizontal position without the sensation of impending sufficient, palpitation of the heart, distressing cough, costiveness, print of the stonach, drowsiness, great debility and deficiency of the nervous energy. Mr. R. Monroe gave up every thought of recov-ry, and dire despair sat on the countenance of every person interested in his existence or happiness, till by accident he neticed in a public paper some cures effected by Dr. Wm. Erans' Medicine in its complaint, which induced him to purchase a package of the Pilla, which resulted in completely removing every symptom of his disease. He wishes to say his motive for this declaration is, that those afflicted with the same or any symptoms similar to those from which he is happily restored, may likewise receive the same hestimable benefit. ET A Letter from Mr. Sheldon P. Gilbert, to Dr.

Pil'a:

Dear Sir—Had the immertal Cowper known the medical qualities of the Camomile Plant, he as well as thousands since (besides myself.) would have experienced its wonderful effects on the nervous system. The public utility of Cowper was blighted in the bud, throthe natural effect of his nervous debility upon the reental powers, which made it necessary for him to seek relief beneath the rural shade, but the calm retreat gave his physical nature no repose. If some one then had known the secret of concentraling the medical virtues of Camomile, the discoverer would have been immortalized with poetic zeal as the benefactor of suffering man.

The above lines were prompted from the effect I have experienced from Dr. Wm. Evans' Camomile Pills.

Of Another recent test of the unrivelled virtue of Dr. Wm. Evans' Medicines.—DYSPEPSIA, TEN YEARS' STANDING.—Mr. J. McKenzie, 176 Stanton street, was afflicted with the above complaint for 10 years, which incapacitated him at intervals, for the period of six years, in attending to his business, rostor it to perfect health under the salutary treatment of 1st. Win. Evans.

The symptoms were.—A sense of distension and expression after eating, distressing pain in the pit of the stomach, nausea, impaired appetite, giddiness, palpitation of the heart, great debiity and emaciation, depression of spirits, disturbed rest, sometimes a bilious vomiting, and pain in the right side, an extreme degree of languar and faintness; any endeavour to prove his business causing immediate exhaustion and weariness.

Mr. McKenzie is daily attending his business, and none of the above symptoms have recurred since he used the medicine. He is now a strong and healthy man. He recorted to myriads of remedies, but they were all ineffectual. He is willing to give any information to the afflicted respecting the inestinable benefit rendered to him by the use of Dr. Wm. Evans' medicine.

(T) An Extraordinary and Remarkable Cure.—Mrs. Mary Dillen. Williamsburgh, corner of Fourth and North streets, completely restored to health by the treatment of Dr. W. Evan., 100 Chatham st.

The symptoms of this distressing case were as follows: Total loss of appetite, pal, intion of the heart, twitching of the tendons, with a general spasmodic affection of the muscles, difficulty of breathing, giddiness, langour, lassitude, great depression of spirits, with a fear of some impending ovil, a sensation of flattering at the pit of the stemach, irregular transient pains in different parts, great emacration, with other symstoms of extreme debility.

The above case was pronounced hopeless by three of the most eminent physicians, and the dissolution of the patient daily awaited by her friends, which may be an thenticated by the physicians who were in attendance. She has given her cheerful permission to publish the above facts, and will also glially give any information respecting the benefit she has received, to any inquiring

DYSPEPSIA AND HYPOCHON-DRIACISM—Interesting Case—Mr. William Salmon, Green street, above Third, Philadelphia, afficied for several years with the following distressing symptoms. Sickness at the stomach, headache, dizatness, plpitation of the heart, impaired appetite, rometimes acid and putrescent eructations, coldness and weakness of the extremities, emaciation and general debility, disturbed rost, a sense of pressure and weight at the stomach after eating, nightmare, great mental despondercy, severe flying pains in the chest, back and sides, costiveness, a dislike for society, or conversation, involuntary sighing and weeping, languor and lassitude upon the least exercise.

Mr. Salmon had applied to the most eminent plysicians, who considered it beyond the power of medicine to restore him to health; however as his affliction had reduced him to a very deplorable condition, and having been recommended by a relative of his to make trial of Dr. Wm. Evans' medicine, he with difficulty repaired to the office and procured a package, to which, he says, he is indebted for his restoration to life, health and friends. He is now enjoying all the blessings of health. Mr. Spencer, from the minority of the com-

The undersigned members of the committee of elections and privileges, differing in opinion with the majority of the said committee on the nemorials of Benjamin Kirby and Robert Welch, submitted the following report.

Mr. Kirby claims his right to a seat in this house as a delegate from Kent county for three

1st. Because at the election for delegates to the General Assembly of Maryland, held in Kent county in October last, he received five hundred and thirty-five fair and legal votes, as one of said delegates, James S. Primrose received five hundred and thirty-nine votes. William S. Lassell five hundred and thirty six votes William S. Constable five hundred and twentyeight legal votes and six illegal votes, for want of residence, John McDaniel five hundred and twenty seven legal votes and six like illegal votes, and James II. Gale five hundred and six legal votes and six illegal votes, for the same

2d. Because in addition to the said illegal rotes received by the said Constable, McDaniel and Gale another illegal vote, for want of age was counted to each of the said gentlemen. 3d. Because the bullot of a good and lawful voter of said county, who offered to vote for the said Kirby, William S. Lassell and James S. Primruse was rejected by the judges of the elec-

If it be in the power of Mr. Kirby to establish, either one of the points contained in his memo-rial, he is entitled to his seat in this bouse. If t he true, as stated by him that the votes which he received were legal votes, then the shotraction of a single vote from William S. Constab will catablish Mr. Kirby's claim to his seit. He states that he can prove to the satisfaction of this house, that seven illegal, votes, six for want of residence, and one on account of minority were given to the said William S. Con-

by Mr. Kirby in his memorial. In this condition of his case, and with an a. rerment on his part of his ability to prove the facts as stated by him, the majority of the comnittee have declined to examine into testimony. and without a hearing from Mr. Kirby, have reported unfavourably to his claim. However much any portion of your committee might regret the inconvenience, trouble an i expense incident to an inquiry, whether the udges of election, from want of judgment, due nformation or corruption, have received and counted illegal votes, yet the minority of the committee are of opinion that when an allega-tion is properly made that a member has been returned by illegal votes, or rejected by illegal votes, the constitution and law of the land require that the matter should be investigated. By the election laws of the State of land, no person shall vote at an election for de-legates to the General Assembly, who is not of the age of twenty-one years, and has not resided twelve months in the State and six months in the county, next preceding said election. -And by the constitution it is declared, that the House of Delegates shall judge of the elections and qualifications of its members.

All of which illegal voters are named

Every candidate for a sent in this house who has received a sufficient number of legil votes to elect him, has a right from which he ca mot votes have been counted against him, from inisapprehension, or fraud, by the judges. The nly proper question is, were illegal votes received and counted? If they were, and inquiry is concluded, then an individual having a legal. right to his seat may be rejected.

The undersigned cannot think, because the judges of election may be presumed to act fairly, that it is safer to trus to their decision the ouse should undertake to exercise its consututional duty in investigating whether the judges received itlegal votes, and by so doing have deprived the house of its proper member—an in-dividual of his right—and the people of their chosen representative. Should this doctrine prevail the worst consequences may be apprehended. Every day gives additional proof o the corruption of judges of election and the necessity of passing penal laws to restrain their frauds and corruptions. It is well known that popular sentiment will not always restrain them. They are too often selected for party purposes, and those selected, the weakness of whose intellects render them the convenient instruments of the corrupt and incruguing. This is tar from that a great body of the judges of election, are not honourable men. But if this house should determine, it will leave with them exclusingly, the right of judging whether voters have lead qualifications, then will have passed away the restraint that is now felt in the knowledge, that their acts in this particular will be supervised by this body.

It cannot be disputed that the three persons having the greatest number of votes at the recent election in Kent county, are entitled to seats on this floor. If Mr. Kirby was one of those, he has a claim of which he cannot be deprived-and if deprived, he can demand an inquiry from this house, which it cannot, without outting at defiance the constitution, deny him-He has the same right to demand a seat before this house that an individual has in the prose-cution of a claim, to institute a suit in any of the courts of this State; and this house has no more right to refuse him redress, on the ground of inconvenience and discretion, than could the judges of the courts. If he choose to incur the responsibility of an investigation, and it turn out that his allegations are untenable, then the esponsibility is with him-not with this house. It has accorded to him what is his right and privilege. If though he prove the fact that he was defeated by illegal votes, his claim is established and his right to a seat incontestable.

He contends that he rec-ived five hundred and thirty-five legal votes—that there were only two others who received a many votesthat William S Constable with whom he is returned by the judges tied, received only fi.e. hundred and twenty eight legal votes. If this be true, Mr. Kirby has a legal vested right, which it is competent for him to establish in the way pointed out by the law. He has resorted to his legal remedy, and without a heuring on his part, or of his presence before the committee, the majority have reported that he is not entitled to a seat in this house.

Mr. Welch claims his seat on the same round as set forth in the 1st and 3d points of Mr. Kirby—all the reasoning therefore of the undersigned which applies to Mr. Kirby's case, reaches Mr. Welch's.

The majority of the dominities, though they have refused in both cases to inquire into the
